Stockholm, June 28.

THE King of Sweden has not had any Return of his Ague since the 21st Instant, so that it is hoped his Majesty has now got intirely rid of it. On the 22d Instant an Express arrived from Uma with an Account, that on the 18th a Muscovite Officer came over thither from Finland, and brought an Order to the Commander of the Muscovite Gallies to desist from all further Hostilities and return to Abo. We have not had Letters for several Days from Neustadt, by reason of contrary Winds. The Fleets continue still at Cappel-Share.

Paris, July 19. The Count de Thoulouse is going to establish a School in the Jesuits College for teaching the Turkish and Oriental Languages. It is said likewise, that the Cardinal de Bissy will establish another after his Return from Rome, for instructing a certain Number of young Students in Philosophy, Morality, and Divinity. M. Jolain, who was removed lately by a Lettre de Cachet from his Syndicate of the Sorbonne, refuses to deliver to his Successour M. Romigny, the Registers of that Faculty, on Pretence that he was made Syndick contrary to the Statutes and Privileges of the said Faculty; but it is believed, that in the next Meeting of the Sorbonne a Lettre de Cachet will be sent to M. Jolain, to compel him to deliver the said Registers. The Turkish Ambassadour is preparing for his Return Home. The King's Picture inriched with Diamonds, which was presented to that Ambassadour on the 12th Instant, is valued at 50000 Crowns. Besides other Presents, several Sets of fine Hangings wrought at the Gobelins have been given to him.

Hague, July 22. The States of the Province of Holland assembled here, will separate To-Day or To-Morrow, without coming to any final Resolution upon the Differences between our West India Company and the Offenders, or on the other Affairs they had before them; referring those Points to their next Assembly. The Swedish Minister here is soliciting the States, that the Command of the Regiment of Horse in their Service, of which the King of Sweden is Collonel, may be transferred to his Majesty's Cousin-Germain Prince William, younger Son to the late Landgrave of Philipsthal. Letters from Petersbourg of the 29th past, say the Czar arrived there that Day from Revel by Sea, with 50 of his largest Gallies: The Czarina, and the Duke of Holstein, who made the Journey from Revel by Land, were expected at Petersbourg on the 30th. 'Tis advised from Vienna, that the Empress who has been at Carlsbad, to use the Waters, returned on the 8th Instant in very good Health; being met by the Emperour in the Neighbourhood of Vienna, and conducted to the Favorita. By Letters from Malaga of the 23d past, we learn that Vice-Admiral Somersdyck with the Squadron of Ships of this State under his Command, had put into that Port.

Whitehall, July 14, 1721.

Whereas on Saturday the 24th Day of June last, between the Hours of Nine and Ten in the Evening, three Foot-Pads assaulted and robbed Philip Pott, Surveyor of the Window-Lights, near St. Pancras Church, in the Road leading from Highgate to London, as he was returning from his Duty, and treated him in such a barbarous manner that he died of his Wounds the Monday following: His Majesty is pleased, for the better Discovery of the said Offenders, to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the Persons concerned in the said Fact, who shall discover any of his Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to such Person, or to any other Person or Persons making such Discovery.
